

Singer Thrills Concert Crowd

(Continued from Page One)

Certainly the picture she made, stately and tall in her silver lame dress, was a moving one.

It was mostly in her encores that the audience was allowed a glimpse of her deft dramatic talent, her swift humor. Encores were Schubert's Die Manner sind merchant; Dvorak's Songs My Mother Taught Me; a Finnish folk song; Dere's No Hidin' Down There; Lehman's Coo Co; and Will O' the Wisp by Sprass.

Kosti Vehanen, noted Finnish musician, was Miss Anderson's accompanist. She sang a gay composition of his, The Girl the Boys All Love.

Miss Anderson, Mr. Vehanen and her manager, A. I. Jofe, will leave by train Friday afternoon.

The Anderson concert was the last of the Boise Community Concert series this season.

Dominican Republic President Succumbs

CIUDAD, Trujillo, Dominican Republic (AP)—President Jacinto E. Peynado of the Dominican Republic died Thursday night. He was 62 years old.

President Peynado's leg was amputated Sunday, after a local infection had developed.

TAXES INCREASED

Egypt is increasing taxes on food.